

Lisa Martin is doing a Business Studies Course at Kingston Polytechnic. She went for a holiday to Egypt, following her aunt, who had met Howard Carter before he opened Tutankhamun's tomb.

Lucinda Morrison was at Durham University and was elected President of the College Bar. Kath Ridley and Ginny Calver were also there, as well as other contemporaries. Lucinda had a lot of unexpected difficulty in gaining a university place, but feels now that the two years between leaving school and going up to Durham have benefited her.

Kate Morton has taken a Fine Arts Course at Balliol.

Sarah Naish is doing a Biological Sciences Course at Exeter University.

Jocelyn Pannett (Seymour) is married to an Army Officer stationed at Winchester. She has two children and Christina Fowden (Smallwood) is Godmother to the elder. Christina has a boy of four and twins of two.

Carolyn Pumphrey is still working in North Carolina and launching out into such things as wood-working and guitar. She remembers her visit in 1982 to England when she called in at the Hall and spent an idyllic week-end with Jennifer Jones, who lives in the Isle of Wight. Charlotte Pumphrey is a nurse at the John's Hopkins Center, Baltimore, and spends much of her spare time riding. Both of them would be glad of news from old classmates.

Mary Radford continues to teach physiotherapy at the University of Evansville in America, having completed her M.A. in 1983.

Beryl Richardson (Swan) is still in contact with Ann Lloyd (Evans) and Pat Wisdom (Jacob) who shared Elliott Dormitory at School.

Sue Ricketts (Somerville) has two children and works with her husband's building company. She is very active in the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament.

Katherine Ross-Thomson (Seth) visited Elizabeth Moore and had a marvellous time recalling their schooldays, in particular the terrifying Miss Wisdom who taught English and was a wonderful teacher. Last year she spent a week in Rome with one of her sister, Helen's daughters who is with the Australian Broadcasting Corporation. Helen's other daughter was in London and visited Katie.

Mary Scully (Chalmers) stayed with Phayre Crowley and her brother in October 1984, who live in Perth, Western Australia. Phayre is a wonderful hostess and companion and Perth a beautiful City, clean, planned, prosperous, with a fine carrilion and shopping centre. There are beautiful views across the Swan River and a surprising abundance of English flowers. They visited Pemberton and Albany, old-fashioned and full of charm, and also went to the gold mines in Kalgoorlie.

Emily Constance Shallard has settled in a comfortable home for the elderly with her eldest sister, Nellie. She is becoming deaf and Nellie, at 91, is almost sightless. They have visits from many old friends and families.

Caroline Simmons is working in London and has had a holiday in Italy.

Clare Smith is studying Hotel and Catering Management at Portsmouth Polytechnic. In 1984 she served tea to the Queen Mother at Southsea and felt it a great privilege to serve and speak to Her Majesty.

Elisabeth Snelling (Flint) has five children and was expecting to move to Salisbury or Wells in order to take up a post as School Matron.

Joan Snow (Way), widow of the Bishop of Whitby, has stayed with Hester Oliver (Girdlestone).

Caroline Stephen (Sims) has left Hong Kong and now lives in London with her husband, although she continues with her old Hong Kong firm on a freelance basis. Her wedding took place last April, when Fanny Johnston, Liz Nickalls and Jill Norman (Smith) were present.

Deborah Treyer-Evans (Silver) is teaching French at Roedean School. She sees Anna Brookes (Cutress), who has a daughter, and Julia Meysner (Banner), who nurses in Sheffield. She attended the wedding of Catherine Adam, who married an Australian, planning to live in Sydney. Deborah also sees Sarah Carey (Goss), who teaches mentally handicapped children.

Catherine Tordoff (Steiner) lectures part-time in English and Communications at Wakefield District College. She has three sons. She hears from Gilly Fifield (Synge) and Leslie Day (Price) and would like to hear from contemporaries.

Myra Turner (Pearce) has two children, a boy of six and a girl of four. She keeps in close contact with Wendy Horton (Edge), who has two children and lives in Steyning. She asks for news of Wendy Foster.

Sheila Waller (Butler) lives in Canada and works as a Home Health Aide. She attends the terminally ill and the elderly, visiting patients' homes after their return from hospital. It is a most satisfying job. Her two sons also live in Canada and she has four grandsons.

Judith Whiddett (Gerrett) has returned to part-time teaching. She keeps in touch with Joan See, who now lives in Vancouver. Also she is in contact with Fiona Allison, who has remarried and lives in Godstone, Surrey, and Sandra Lambert (Cryer), who lives near Oxford and has three children.

Mollie Wonnacott has written some notes about her schooldays in the 1900's. She is now 92 and, sadly, has no relatives to tell her reminiscences to. See elsewhere.

Jenefer Wray (Riley) is in Recruitment Consultancy with Barry Latchford Associates (of Haywards Heath and London), specialising in Senior Data Processing Personnel. She is still active politically as Chairman of both the Conservative Computer Forum and Conservative Friends of Israel South London Area Council. She expects to stand for Croydon Council in May 1986.

Susan Wright (Andrews) went to Australia via California and the Pacific Islands in 1983, taking her ten-year old daughter, Emma. They stayed eighteen months in Sydney, visiting Queensland and Victoria in the school holidays. On their return to this country they travelled via Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, Japan and Alaska.

OBITUARIES

JESSICA LIVOCK (Sutthery)

Jessica Livock was at St. Mary's Hall during the First World War. Her daughter, Mrs. Ann Kraunsoe, writes:

"My Mother always took a great interest in the School and enjoyed receiving the Magazine and Newsletter. She also kept up with several of her school friends and often talked of her time at the Hall. My Mother was a most devoted wife (my Father is 87!) and mother and was much loved by her four grandchildren."

MARJORIE ROSSI (Segal)

Dorothy Smith (Lilley) sent news of the death of her old friend and wrote:

"We were in the same form up the School. Marjorie was nearing her 90th birthday and had grown very frail and 'flat-bound'. I saw her in hospital and knew it was goodbye to my old school friend. She was the youngest of three sisters, Hilda, Kathleen and Marjorie, at S.M.H. around 1908-1914."
