My very dear Sarah and Ann

We were very glad to receive the parcel this morning and we are very much obliged to you for it. We were very much pleased with dear Deborah's letter; I suppose that that little scrawled piece of paper was Ann's letter, & we are very much obliged to her, and also to dear Robert for his letter. I think he is very much improved in his writing. I hope that we shall improve very much in our studies. I was quite surprised to see dear little Marianna's hair so dark she must be a sweet little baby. We thought of you very much on your wedding day. We that is Seaman and Ann I see going to have a tea party this evening, we are going to invite Anne & David
