The St. Mary's Hall News-Letter.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Readers of the News-Letter are reminded that the Centenary of the School will be celebrated on August 1st, 1936. Thought is already being given to the preparations, and special attention is drawn to Miss GHEY'S remarks on the subject, in her letter, which will be found on page 5, and also to references made during the S.M.H.A. week-end at the Hall (see report, page 9), and there is further Centenary news on page 19. Suggestions are invited in connection with the arrangements, and also for a special cover for the News-Letter that year.

Membership of the S.M.H.A. does not increase as rapidly as it should. As an encouragement to girls who have just left school to join, the subscription for the first three years, after having left school, has been reduced to 2s. 6d., the normal amount being 4s. In each News-Letter year by year, there is a long list of News of Old Girls, but many of these are not members of the Association. If this reaches the eye of any such, will they not consider joining? Here also is a harvest for present members to gather in!

Mothers! please tell us the names of your new babies! Everyone is always interested to know them.

Members of S.M.H.A. (both Old Girls and Mistresses) are asked to assist in completing the information given in the Directory. There are still many spaces in the "dates" and "occupation" columns which it is wished to fill in for the interest of contemporaries.

THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

ST. MARY'S HALL,
BRIGHTON.

August 16th, 1934.

DEAR MEMBERS OF THE S.M.H.A.,

The Week-End, made particularly delightful by Miss BOLTON'S charming hospitality at St. Hilary, was a joy to us all: and though we did not hold a formal business meeting to make Centenary plans we talked a great deal and many constructive ideas were forthcoming. Two years will be none too long for the preparations for such an event, and some officials of the S.M.H.A. are kindly coming to visit me in the Autumn term.

Our first need is for help in getting into touch with hundreds of Old Girls who have given up all connection with the School. This can be done (I hope), partly through advertisement in such papers as The Times and The Morning Post, but we want your help in sending us names and addresses of non-members known to you.

This Hundredth Birthday, which we hope to celebrate on August 1st, 1936, and the following days, will give all friends and members of St. Mary's Hall who are fortunate enough to be alive for (and to) the occasion, the chance to do a number of good and pleasant things : to re-affirm belief in and happy loyalty to our great School ; to greet again or for the first time a great concourse of the like-minded ; to inaugurate the Second Century with gifts and happy omens ; and to close the First Century by putting an end (if we can) to all financial anxiety, and setting those responsible for the School free to work unhampered by the constant worry about money which absorbs energy capable of being put to better uses.

Please keep these invigorating prospects daily before you in the next two years, and prepare your treasures of inventiveness, grace and beauty to crown the great Day !

Thank you—always more than I can say—for visits, letters and messages, all most welcome. We have had a good year in the School, though shadowed by losses of which you will read in the News-Letter.

I will now, foreseeing a very busy term and possibly no leisure before Christmas, wish you all a very Happy Christmas and all joy in the New Year. I shall be thinking of you all, even if you do not hear from me.

Yours affectionately,

F. L. GHEY.

S.M.H.A., 1934.

The 27th Annual General Meeting of the above was held on Saturday, January 6th, at Holy Trinity Parish Hall, Sloane Square. At 2.15, a short Committee Meeting was held, Miss GHEY taking the Chair ; there were also present :—Mrs. MACFARLANE (Treasurer), Mrs. CUNNEW (Editor of News-Letter), Mrs. COAD, Mrs. DAVIS and W. HOPLEY (Secretary).

The business for the afternoon was then discussed and the agenda prepared. The General Meeting followed after an interval, in which the members collected and greeted one another. Those present were :—

Mistresses—Miss ATKINSON, Miss FORREST, Miss GHEY, Miss GALTON, Miss HODGSON, Miss H. POTTER, Miss PERRY, Miss F. E. SMITH, Miss KINGDON WARD, Miss WEBSTER, Miss WRIGHT,

Old Girls (Married)—Mrs. ALLNUTT (M. WATSON), Mrs. BARLOW (G. HUNT), Mrs. J. R. DAVIS (T. BELLHOUSE), Mrs. DOUGLAS FRY (J. MACDONALD), Mrs. MACFARLANE (A. RAWSON), Mrs. NELIGAN (J. COCKELL), Mrs. SHEAVES (I. DISNEY), Mrs. CUNNEW (A. OLIPHANT), Mrs. COAD (B. BINNS), Mrs. BARTON (M. LEE), Mrs. LONGSDON (E. FOTHERINGHAM).

H. BOSWELL, G. L. BATSON, M. COLLISSON, J. COLMAN, K. CHAMBRE, K. DARBY, G. GEARY, R. HARRIS, W. HARRISSON, M. M. HALL, E. HOPLEY, W. HOPLEY, D. LILLEY, M. OLIVER, M. PATERSON, M. ROBERTS, M. BROCKLEHURST, G. RAYNOR, L. RAYNOR, N. STANDAGE, J. SWEET, W. OWEN SMITH, E. RYAN, J. SUTHERY, J. TAYLOR, D. WILLIAMS, I. WANSTALL, M. WANSTALL, U. YOUNG.

Miss GHEY, in a few words, said how glad she was to be with us again, and how pleased and grateful for all the kind messages, greetings, cards and sympathy she had received during her illness. Before opening the meeting with prayer, she spoke of the five who had passed on into the Unseen and whom we remembered in silence for a moment—

Miss FRANCES POTTER, Miss GRIFFITHS, Mrs. WYATT (E. CALDWELL), Miss KATE BIRRELL and Mr. A. F. GRIFFITH, who had been an ever-helpful friend to the School.

Minutes of last meeting. It was agreed that these should be taken as read, having been published in the News-Letter.

Treasurer's Report.—Mrs. MACFARLANE asked that the Balance Sheet should be also taken as read, having been published in the News-Letter. She said the Balance Sheet showed an improvement, being an increase of £5 3s. 4d., but the expenses were the same. There were only 20 new members, and this was not good enough; 43 life members, which was very satisfactory—a good investment for the Hall—but a very long list of arrears in payment.

Miss GHEY then spoke warmly of our thanks due to Mrs. MACFARLANE for her long term of splendid work for the Association, and of the appreciation we felt for it. She moved a vote of grateful thanks from the Chair, which was carried with acclamation.

The Secretary's Report.—W. HOPLEY said she had nothing particular to report, but urged all present to bestir themselves and get into touch with their contemporaries. If each could get only two more to join the S.M.H.A. it would mean a matter of 100 new members and a gain of £5.

London Branch Secretary.—M. BROCKLEHURST reported that there had been no summer meeting this year. The arrangements had fallen through owing to the illness of Mrs. SHEAVES' husband, as she had kindly offered to be hostess. Mrs. MACFARLANE offered to hold the coming meeting at her house, but this being too far from London, M. WANSTALL offered the room at her sister's Club, G. and L. RAYNOR offering their hospitality. This was gratefully accepted.

Election of Officers.—L. RAYNOR, being willing to serve, was duly elected as Treasurer to succeed Mrs. MACFARLANE. W. HOPLEY was willing to serve again as Secretary and Mrs. CUNNEW as Editor. Miss GHEY commended the successful way in which the latter had carried out her arduous task, giving much pleasure thereby. These all were duly carried nem. con.

Officers for Committee.—It was proposed by Mrs. CUNNEW, and put to the meeting from the Chair, that the same Committee should be appointed again to serve en bloc for the coming year. This was duly carried. Mrs. CUNNEW then introduced the subject of a reduced fee for membership and a discussion followed.

(1) Miss WRIGHT proposed that a fee of 2s. 6d. only should be allowed for those just leaving the School, during the time they were earning little and had many expenses.

(2) M. WANSTALL proposed that the lower subscription should be available for all, and any able to give more should pay it as a donation.

This (2) was first put to the meeting, but the motion was lost, only a quarter of the meeting voting for it.

Miss GHEY then asked for the original motion to be voted on, and this gained the day, the original proposition being altered to:—Subscription, 2s. 6d., being available for the first three years on leaving School. G. BATSON seconding this, it was put to the meeting and carried by a majority.

Miss GHEY concluded by asking, if any member found herself hard pressed and the subscription at the moment beyond her power to pay, would the meeting agree to allow her to deal with this? It was agreed this should be left to the judgment of Miss GHEY.

Miss GHEY then spoke of various items of news:—

(1) Miss AUSTIN's resignation after such faithful service to the Hall.

(2) The Old Girls' Week-End, which she hoped to have at the end of the summer term, at which they must prepare plans for the Centenary celebrations.

(3) MAGGIE CHURCH was returning once more to her work in China, and would value their thoughts and prayers on January 19th, when she was to sail.

(4) ELEANOR WOODGATE, who was to be congratulated on gaining the O.B.E.

(5) ANNIE HAZELDINE, who wrote from New Zealand.

(6) Of helping the Hall by gifts of old furniture.

(7) Of keeping in touch with the Hall and gaining new members.

(8) Of compiling a record of old distinctions and awards gained by former pupils.

W. HOPLEY, Secretary.

The thanks of the S.M.H.A., and especially of all its officers, are due to Mrs. MACFARLANE for the devotion, skill and kindness with which she has carried out for so many years the duties of Hon. Treasurer to the Association, which owes to her loyal and enthusiastic help much more than words can express. We should feel lost without Mrs. MACFARLANE, but for the happy fact that LUCY RAYNOR has been found willing to carry on in the same spirit.

S.M.H.A. (LONDON BRANCH).

The Summer Meeting of the S.M.H.A. London Branch, was held on Saturday, June 30th, at MARGARET WANSTALL'S Club (X.Y.Z. Club, 3, Leicester Square), GLADYS and LUCY RAYNOR kindly acting as hostesses.

The "talk part" was held in MARGARET'S nice, cool drawing room (which we all thought more pleasant than going into the gardens in front), and the tea in her dining room.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent, the meeting was quite informal and nineteen members were present:—Miss FORREST (looking very well and bright), Miss HELEN POTTER and her sister, FRANCES, Miss WEBSTER, Miss F. E. SMITH, Mrs. HARWOOD (M. HALL), Mrs. ALLNUTT (M. WATSON), G. BATSON, R. BERWICK, M. BROCKLEHURST, E. COLLINS, A. EACOTT, R. GIBBONS, E. LOVELOCK, G. RAYNOR, L. RAYNOR, W. OWEN SMITH, M. WALL, M. WANSTALL.

Owing to the unavoidable absence of our President, Miss GHEY, Miss H. POTTER kindly gave the vote of thanks to the hostesses, and read the letters of regret. As the funds had grown so low, a round collection was made, and 12s. collected; this will enable us to carry on for another two years for meetings, stationery, stamps, etc.

M. BROCKLEHURST.

S.M.H.A. WEEK-END AT THE HALL.

The "Old Girls' Week-End" promised and made possible by the kindness of Miss GHEY, was held at St. Hilary House from Friday, July 27th, till Monday, July 30th.

It was good to have Miss GHEY presiding over us, once more restored to health. We were made to feel very welcome by Miss BOLTON, now head of St. Hilary, and she and Miss FORTESCUE and the staff cared splendidly for our needs and comforts in the bright rooms and dormitories of that spacious House. The following came for the whole or part of the time:—

Mistresses.—Miss GHEY, Miss FORREST, Miss GALTON, Miss GILLETT, Miss BOLTON, Miss POTTER, Miss WISDOM, The Misses FRENCH, Miss CARTER, Miss MILES, Miss HITCHCOCK, Miss GRAHAM (Housekeeper, S.M. Hall), Miss ATHILL, Miss FORTESCUE, Miss STRINGER, Miss LAW.

Old Girls.—M. ASWIN, G. L. BATSON, E. L. BOOTH, A. BARON, J. BARTON, M. BOND Mrs. CAPERN, L. COE, D. CROSS, K. DARBY, M. DALLIMORE, M. DUKE, R. ELWIN, M. EVANS, E. C. GIRDLESTONE, E. HANHAM, N. HOWE, E. HOPLEY, W. HOPLEY, J. KENNELLY, I. LAURENCE, B. LEADBITTER, M. LUFFMAN, PHYLLIS POYSER, L. RAYNOR, P. SMEE, W. OWEN SMITH, M. STANHAM, Mrs. STURDY (J. CRIBB), J. THOMAS, L. L. WATSON, M. M. WATSON, K. WALTON,

Messages from many not able to come surrounded us with happy thoughts. Miss GHEY held a meeting of all who could possibly come together on Saturday after lunch—old girls, old mistresses—covering a period of 65 years, about 45 members being present. She had hoped to have Col. ELLIOTT and members of the Council, that a formal meeting might be held to discuss preparations for the coming Centenary in 1936, but this proved impossible so, instead, Miss GHEY talked to us of the necessary steps towards this splendid event and asked for suggestions as to the proper advertising of it, etc. It was thought by some that paragraphs might be put in some of the popular church papers, but this not too long beforehand.

It was thought that the present S.M.H.A. committee with its officers, should get together in the near future and face the necessary preparations to be made and organise the working out of a possible scheme. Money must be collected and names and addresses of those girls not now in touch with the old School. Miss GHEY hopes that some of the Committee may be able to meet at the Hall during the autumn and spend the night. Please, all who read these lines, think out and send suggestions, that the Committee may have matter on which to work.

A very joyous evening was spent on Saturday, when the younger members (two only just stepping out of School days, with others forming Miss BOLTON's nursery dormitory) gave us an impromptu entertainment of many delightful items, one showing the gradual evolving of the young St. Maryain up to date—and beyond ! One member of 1896 (?) showing the wonderful "calisthenic" costume—bringing back many memories to those who used hurriedly to don it ! (See poem, page 29). Sunday evening brought glimpses of the dear old Hall from years long past, through the memories of some of our oldest members, who carefully searched and brought to light things grave and gay, seen through the mind of a child—dim figures, faces, places, kindly words and curious customs and doings—how the walls and rooms of the Hall might speak if they were able !

We parted on Monday morning, thanking most heartily all those who had made this week-end possible and with the hope that we might meet thus again.

W. HOPLEY.

OLD GIRLS' WEEK-END, JULY 27th—30th.

Reminiscences of Some Present.

Miss WATSON (1876-78) spoke of various customs they had in her day. One of these was walking up and down on the terrace instead of walks on cold days. People would really rather have gone for walks. They had to go in double file as if they were really on a proper walk. This was in the days of Miss NEWPORT and Miss LUCY NEWPORT.

On one occasion some of the younger children jumped into the tank, which was empty, when they got tired of walking up and down. Miss WATSON was left in last and couldn't get out. She was reported, when found out, for "taking a liberty." After prayers next morning they were asked who had been in the tank, and those who had been, had to sew sheets as a punishment on Wednesday afternoon, and when they had finished they had to write out "I have worked diligently" before they were free.

In those days they had no jugs in the dormitories, only two basins each. These were filled at night and often in the winter they were frozen over in the morning.

If they brought back jam and cakes in the first week of term, they had to make a list of their friends among whom it was divided. They always had bags of work at their side at meal times, and were very fond of doing "spider" stitch. The meals usually took rather a long time.

When going out on Wednesdays with friends, the form mistress had to be told, and she obtained the key of the girl's trunk from which a dress in which to go out had to be selected.

Punishments.—One of the chief was writing home to say what you had done and the letter was a dictated one. Miss NEWPORT came in one day when arithmetic was going on. Miss WATSON was told to stand up because she was answering too eagerly and enjoying the lesson. She was told to come upstairs and write to her father and what she had to say was "I am a sheep that is going up the wrong path."

Another punishment was to sit on the lockers with nothing to do—just wasting time.

Sewing sheets and going early to bed were also very common. Names were also entered in the Report Book, and writing out "a good girl seeks to love her teacher, but a naughty one likes to be left alone in her idle ways."

Miss NEWPORT was very kind. She used to come and skip with them. The children were all very fond of her. She was not too strict.

Once two girls were asked to leave on account of their behaviour. The one went, because it was better for her to go to a smaller school, but the other one's father found it difficult to fetch her, and so she remained.

From 1.45—3.45 was recreation, and after that lessons and preparation followed. Skipping was a great pastime. Everyone went to kiss Miss NEWPORT every night. There were about 100 girls in those days. School mothers looked after the younger girls and they looked at their clothes every week and saw that nothing was wanting or needed repairing.

Mrs. STURDY (1877), described her first night at school. She slept in the lower-east dormitory. She went to bed and jumped over the partition. They had an examination on the first day. She spent two years in the lowest form, and as a punishment once she was told "to sit in the seat of the scornful and learn the first Psalm." Miss POTTER brought her a tract to read. They had to see the Trustees if they were not sorry and she had to meet Canon BABINGTON.

Once when Miss CAMPBELL had lost her sponge, she asked the dormitory "Have any of you girls seen my sponge?" and someone answered, "Yes, JESSIE CRIBB has got it pressed in her Bible."

Their marks (or reports) had to be given in every evening at roll-call.

They learnt a great deal of Scripture in those days. There were only two terms in the year. They had to learn during a term, 18 Psalms, all the Collects for the term, and four or five chapters from the New Testament, the Catechism, and half of the 39 Articles and Scripture proofs for each bit. They had one hour of Scripture lesson each morning after breakfast. They learned no mathematics or science before Miss NEWPORT's time, only German, French, History and ordinary subjects. The bell above the front door was used as the fire bell.

On Founder's Day the old girls used to come down and they had to share beds and have meals down in the laundry.

DOROTHEA GAMES (nee STURDEE) was home from South Africa in 1933, and was very sorry that the old girls' week-end had to be cancelled that year.

EDITH HOLLAND, having flown to Africa, has also flown back again. She writes: "I have had a delightful trip, and visited the Acropolis, the Pyramids, Omdurman, Khartoum and Nairobi. We saw elephants, giraffes, zebras, lions and other wild animals. I spent four glorious days at the Victoria Falls, and over three weeks in the back of beyond with my sister and her husband, when I saw people dressed in skins, making their huts, grinding and cooking their mealies."

JOYCE NEWTON, M.D., M.M.S.A., has entered the Carmelite Convent at Kirk Edge, near Sheffield.

M. E. BELSHAM has been working at Chelmsford School of Art and Technology, and in September, 1934, is hoping to go up to the L.C.C. Central School of Arts and Crafts.

MURIEL BEMBRICK COX (nee DAVIDSON), is staying with her son and daughter at present in Brighton. She and her husband hope soon to find a suitable house there. Mrs. COX and five of her cousins have been educated at St. Mary's Hall and she hopes her daughter will go next year. There will be then only one headmistress—the first, Miss TOMKINSON—who has not had one of the family under her. The five are :—JULIA and FANNY DAVIDSON (1872-74, under Miss NEWPORT), MURIEL DAVIDSON (1892-99, under Miss BIRRELL), DOROTHY FOWKE (née ARNOLD) and LESLIE ARNOLD (under Miss EDITH POTTER) and LILLA HIRD (under Miss GHEY).

Mrs. COX has brought to our notice the death of her great friend, Mrs. LLOYD DRIVER (née AMY VAVASOUR BERRIDGE), after three years in bed, suffering much pain, most heroically borne. Music mistress at S.M.H., 1897-1900. After leaving S.M.H., she was a pupil of the late Sir WALTER PARRATT (singing). She married in February 1906, Dr. LLOYD DRIVER, of Southsea.

SCHOOL NEWS.

School Diary, 1933—1934.

Autumn Term.

October 4th.—Mr. DONALD GRANT gave a lecture on Post-War Europe. As this was his second visit, he received an enthusiastic ovation. He dealt mainly with the countries formerly belonging to the Austro-Hungarian Empire, and we were especially interested in his account of the depreciation of the Austrian currency.

October 21st.—St. Hilary's Twelfth Birthday Party was held. Miss GHEY came to supper and afterwards some mistresses and girls joined the House in dancing and games. Some of the juniors performed "The King's Breakfast," during an interval, in which the cow (with a two-fold voice) caused much amusement.

October 27th.—Hebbert's Second Birthday Party. Many mistresses and girls visited Hebbert and a performance of "Waiting for the Bus," by GERTRUDE E. JENNINGS, was given. This comedy was excellently produced at short notice and the "harassed mother" and her unruly children were the "star turn."

October 31st.—Miss THORN took a party of VIth Form to the Friends' Meeting House to hear a speech on Disarmament by Mr. PICKARD who gave the facts very clearly. The chair was ably taken by Dr. RHONDDA WILLIAMS who was kind enough to encourage questions from a member of the school.

November 1st.—Babington was dedicated by the Rev. F. KEELING SCOTT in a short and beautiful service; he was assisted by the Ven. H. J. LOASBY. Babington House received many compliments from the members of the School who went over it.

November 3rd.—Prize Day (see Account).

November 4th, 5th, 6th.—Half term was celebrated. This term the School was given a whole holiday on Saturday, while an hour's work was done on Monday evening. During the week-end the Houses separated and went on charabanc drives to various places of interest. On Saturday evening Miss GHEY gave a party for the School, at which dancing and games were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

November 11th.—A dance was held to which all members of the League of Nations' Union were invited. The object of the dance was social rather than instructive. The proceedings were of a varied nature and were at one point seriously interrupted by three "tub-thumpers," who were, however, successfully quietened by a "policeman."

November 25th.—Sale of work (see Account).

December 2nd.—The VIth Form raised funds for the Working Women's College this year by holding a dance, to which the School and staff were invited. During intervals three short sketches were acted by members of St. Hilary and Elliott. A collection was taken and the sum of £5 1s. 0d. was sent up to the College.

December 2nd.—Cadet evening (see Account).

December 6th.—Two charabancs conveyed most of the Senior School to the Pavilion, where Miss BINGHAM and Mrs. GREENWOOD gave a joint concert, which was thoroughly appreciated.

December 9th.—Hebbert Play (see Account).

December 17th.—The carol concert was held as usual on the last Sunday of term. There was a large audience though, unfortunately, none of St. Dunstan's men were present. We felt that Miss BINGHAM's solo put the finishing touch to the excellent programme she had arranged.

Easter Term.

January 26th, 27th.—Mistresses' Play. (see Account).

February 3rd.—Miss GHEY gave the Christmas party, which had been deferred from the end of the Christmas term owing to quarantine. An enjoyable evening was spent in games and dancing.

February 11th.—A concert was given by Miss KATHLEEN COOPER (pianoforte) and Miss JESSIE STUART (violin), with Miss SALMON as accompanist. The School were delighted with the very beautiful music.

February 24th, 25th, 26th.—The School celebrated half-term. On Saturday evening everyone met for a dance in the Elliott Hall, each wearing an improvised head-dress. Sunday was Miss GHEY's birthday. The School assembled in the front hall to hear their present of a chiming clock "speak for itself," at its presentation. On Monday, the Houses separated for various excursions.

March 17th.—Owing to the weather a hockey match against the Old Girls was impossible. However, two netball teams appeared instead, and matches were played on the hard courts. The School were victorious in both cases, but this was partly owing to the fact that most of the Old Girls had not played since they left School.

March 24th.—Mr. JOHN ASTON gave a lecture on Church Architecture, teaching the School how to distinguish various periods by means of excellent slides. After supper, the School prefects and Upper VIth gave a badminton party to the Lower VIth, and those of the mistresses who were able to come. We hope our guests enjoyed the evening as much as we did.

March 26th.—In the afternoon a hockey match was played between the Mistresses' XI and the First XI. The Mistresses beat an otherwise unbeaten XI. In the evening the Country Dancing Competition was held. Both Senior and Junior Trophies were won by St. Hilary, but all sets reached a very high standard.

Summer Term.

May 3rd.—The Vicar invited the Confirmation candidates to "Nurse Cavell," which was performed at the Theatre Royal, Brighton. NANCY PRICE took the principal part, and all were impressed by the reality of her acting. As the School occupied the boxes, they had a very good view of the stage.

May 5th.—Several of the School went to hear SCHNABEL play BEETHOVEN'S Sonatas at the Dome. We had very good seats and enjoyed the concert exceedingly.

May 6th.—Miss BINGHAM with Miss SINGLETON gave us a lovely concert, including French, English and Italian songs. We were delighted with the selection of new songs and old favourites.

May 16th.—St. Hilary gave a cinematograph show, the film being a thriller called "The Crooked Billet." Though there were occasional breakdowns at crucial moments, suspense was alleviated by community singing.

May 19th.—Owing to quarantine for German Measles, Hebbert went into isolation until June 15th. In spite of inconvenience the temporary exile was much enjoyed.

May 25th.—Some of the Sixth Form went to the Dome to hear Dr. REISSMANN speak on "Nazi Germany and the World." We were especially interested by what he said about the youth movement, and were entertained by some surprisingly irrelevant questions at the end.

May 27th.—Miss HETTY BOLTON gave us a pianoforte recital in the Elliott Hall. This was extremely delightful, and the School hopes for another visit from her in the near future.

June 2nd.—A party of London Club girls from our Mission visited the School and was entertained by the Sixth Form. Great friends were made, and after a happy afternoon and evening spent in various games, and tea in the middle schoolroom, we ate ices on the terrace and gave each visitor a bunch of flowers as a parting gift.

June 6th.—The Old English Players acted scenes from "Much Ado about Nothing" and "Coriolanus" in the Elliott Hall. Everyone enjoyed the performance immensely; not the least applauded event of the evening was the sudden appearance of Benedick's head through the curtain at the end, and his remark, "Thanks a thousand times for listening in silence!!"

June 9th, 10th and 11th.—Half term was celebrated. A tennis tournament was arranged for those who remained at School. On Monday the Houses went on various expeditions. This half-term was (as usual) the best on record.

July 7th.—The cricketing event of the season took place when the Fathers' XI visited the Hall. The XI, captained by Mr. GEE, consisted of Colonel DUKE, Canon SANGSTER, Dr. BARKER, Major TYRRELL, Messrs. CHAMPION, RILEY, WILES, BATEMAN, BOWATER and MONICA LUFFMAN ! The result was a victory for the Fathers by 127 runs to 105 for 8 wickets (declared). Canon SANGSTER and Mr. RILEY bowled in their usual irresistible manner.

July 8th.—Thirty-four girls were confirmed by the BISHOP OF LEWES, who gave a very inspiring address. The enjoyment of the service was increased by the presence of many of the candidates' parents.

July 11th.—Junior House prize-giving (see Account).

July 14th.—Elliott House play (see Account).

July 16th.—The "Homeric" struggle took place between the School and Mistresses' Tennis Eights. The School, eager to witness the contest and anxious to test their photographic skill, turned up in force on the courts of Kemp Town Tennis Club. The Mistresses won by 75 games to 53.

July 18th.—Miss JOY BURNHAM gave some of the seniors a very interesting talk on social service.

July 19th.—Those of the seniors who were formerly at St. Nicholas, returned there for dinner, while the juniors visited the senior school. Many reminiscences were heard as we recalled the days of our more extreme youth.

THE MISTRESSES.

We have had to say "Good-bye" this year to Miss FENBY, on her marriage to the Rev. JOHN HELLICAR ; to Miss STRINGER ; to Miss ROBINSON, on her appointment as Classical Mistress at St. Anne's, Abbots Bromley ; to Miss LAW, on her appointment as Art Mistress at Norwich High School. All these mistresses, who have done so much to further good work and good play, are asked to accept very best thanks, and all happy wishes for their future, from us all.

We welcome (in September, 1934), these mistresses as their successors : Mrs. DRAPER, Miss PICKARD, Miss CARVER, Miss BENNETT ; also Miss SHEPHERD, for additional help in Classics, English and Mathematics.

Miss LLEWELLYN's long absence, due to the death of her parents, was a sorrow to us all and especially to St. Nicholas House. We rejoice that she is to return for the autumn term. Miss D. ELLIOTT and Miss PEARSON are warmly thanked for their services as substitutes, for Miss LLEWELLYN and for Miss NOYES in her illness.

Miss LE GOOD, who was our first Kindergarten Mistress, has been obliged to give up her post in order to be nearer home. She has done excellent work and will be sadly missed by her friends and her small pupils. We welcome Miss POWELL as her successor and Miss TURNBULL for additional work at St. Nicholas. We also welcome Miss BUCKTON as Assistant-Matron in the School House.

MISS WOODHAMS' RETIREMENT.

All friends of the Hall will be very sorry indeed to hear of the enforced retirement, owing to illness, of our Matron and very true friend, Miss WOODHAMS. Her excellent work for "the Hall" in pre-Babington days, for Elliott House and Bristol House, has always been of the very highest standard. How such a lover of exquisite order could tolerate the young with their breezy untidiness at all, might seem a puzzle ; but Miss WOODHAMS' heart is as large as her love of perfection. She admonished, but she understood and forgave, and all knew that they had in her a real friend. Her recovery after a grave operation has made us all most thankful, but we are terribly sorry to say "Good-bye" to her.

THE CENTENARY FUND.

This Fund stands (August 16th, 1934) at £585 ; renewed efforts in the autumn term will (we hope) bring it soon to the first £1,000. We ought to aim at (at least) £2,000, and some of us have larger hopes. Why not ?

When the Governors decided in July, 1934, to instal in the School House the long-wished-for central heating, I felt obliged to offer some help from the Centenary Fund, as that had had central heating for one of its suggested objects. The Governors have not at present accepted any help, so that the Fund stands at its full amount as subscribed to date.

I have heard that a "Pencil Day" is a successful idea for making money, and I am getting a supply of Keswick pencils, inscribed "Remember St. Mary's Hall Centenary, August 1st, 1936." I believe that a surprising amount can be raised by the sale of these pencils at 2d. each ; they will be available as soon as the News-Letter is published, in boxes of a dozen bundles, or in bundles of 12 each. Saleswomen, forward, please.

The Fund has had a notable benefaction, thanks to the efforts of Miss GALTON and the Mistresses in producing "The Rising Generation" four times to enthusiastic audiences ; the noble sum of £32 was the result.

P.S.—Why not an S.M.H.A. Repertory Company ? ?

A complete set of News-Letters and Annual Reports belonging to Miss C. J. B. BIRRELL, sent by Mr. A. H. SCOTT, her nephew.

N.B.—All friends of the School are begged to remember the value of SMALL LEGACIES to cheer the distant future.

SCHOOL WORK.

We were specially pleased that our head girl, MARY WADE, gained entrance to Newnham (Classics), and MARGOT BOND to Somerville (History).

Detailed results of the School Certificate Examination will be found in the Annual Report ; here it will suffice to say that both in December, 1933, and in June, 1934, the School acquitted itself with credit. In June, 1934, H. GIBSON and I. PLATONOFF gained Matriculation Exemption with Honours ; 10 other candidates matriculated and 10 gained School Certificates ; there were four failures.

We had only one Higher Certificate candidate this year ; she was unlucky in having to be absent for a long time, and though she passed in French and Latin and one Mathematical paper, she failed in pure Mathematics. 1935 ought to bring us a good crop of Higher Certificates and just possibly a scholarship or two.

In Music, MARGARET MILES deserves special mention : she gained Hon. Mention in Grade VII, the Silver Medal for Sight Reading (Pianoforte) at the Brighton Musical Festival, 1934, and Distinction in Music in the School Certificate Examination. PHYLLIS POYSER gained Hon. Mention in Grade VI, and eight other candidates Hon. Mention in Grade V and lower grades.

The SNOWDON SMITH Divinity Prize-winners in 1934 were :—

1st—BETTY HOLLAND. 2nd—MARY MENZIES.

The first winner of the Dr. GIBBONS' Leaving Prize (July, 1934) was M. E. DUKE (Upper VI).

CATHERINE DIGHTON Exhibitions were awarded to A. HENDERSON and K. A. HEWITT.

HEAD GIRLS OF HOUSES, 1933—1934.

Henry Venn Elliott—J. C. TAYLOR ; M. E. DUKE.

St. Hilary—K. M. WALTON.

Hebbert—C. M. HOLDSWORTH (Head of School, May, 1934).

Babington—R. A. LOASBY.

Bristol—M. F. WADE (Head of School) ; J. STUART.

St. Nicholas—B. MIZBAH ; J. BOAK.

FOUNDER'S DAY, 1933.

This year we had Lady LECONFIELD, the wife of the Lord Lieutenant of Sussex, to give away the prizes. Her charming personality did much to make the prize-giving day a very happy one. We were also glad to have Colonel ELLIOTT with us as chairman.

Our concert this year included recitations in Latin, German and French, as well as English, and there were several pianoforte solos, of which MARGARET MILES's gained the most applause by its really masterly rendering.

Miss GHEY's report of the year was very cheering, and showed progress in every direction. The work especially showed improvement. We ourselves felt that the only drawback to the year had been the absence of Miss GHEY herself, but this she naturally passed over.

Lady LECONFIELD's speech was one which must have been listened to with pleasure by oldest and youngest alike. She encouraged us all to find joy in life, and advised us to have hobbies so that we should not find life dull. She spoke very fluently and naturally, and the applause which she gained was well-merited.

At the evening service, we heard from the special preacher a very practical and convincing address.

The day was fittingly concluded by the reading of the archives by Miss GHEY, as is customary, and we were all interested to hear what the School was like in its first beginnings, ninety-seven years before.

ST. NICHOLAS HOUSE PRIZE-GIVING.

St. Nicholas House prize-giving was held on the 11th of July. We were so happy to have Miss GHEY with us this year.

Miss BATTERBURY gave us a very interesting report, which showed the satisfactory year that they have had in work and games. This year has seen an increase in numbers to eighty-one in the Junior House itself and twelve in the kindergarten.

Mrs. HORDERN, wife of the BISHOP OF LEWES, gave away the prizes, and charmed us with a little speech about keeping open the door of friendship.

After the prizes had been given, we were delighted by "The House that Jack Built," acted and sung by the kindergarten. This received an enthusiastic encore. The first and second forms sang charmingly.

The play, "Fat King Melon and Princess Caraway," was acted very skilfully, and the soloists sang delightfully. We all appreciated the gallant troops, comprised of the four kindergarten boys, and the sailors with their ship. JEAN PIGEON made a very good Fat King Melon with the aid of a dormitory pillow, and the climax of amusement was reached when Princess Caraway removed her pillow and appeared as slim as ever ! H.M.S.

THE SALE OF WORK.

The Sale was held as usual during the Christmas Term, on November 25th. A record sum was raised for Home and Foreign Missions.

An astonishing variety of articles was displayed on the stalls. It would have been possible to buy anything, from an elephant (not life size) to an artistic Chinese vase for the drawing room. The crowd of guests seemed more generous than ever and the stall-holders were naturally most charming and irresistible !

Two short plays were produced by members of Elliott House and a collection of nearly £5 was taken. Tea, as usual, was in the School dining-hall, where the long tables were continually packed by exhausted buyers !

Congratulations should be offered to Miss GHEY, the House Mistresses and all others concerned on the untiring zeal with which they had directed operations during the preceding year.

CADET NOTES.

During the Christmas term the activities of the Cadets were limited, as Miss GILLETT was unable to take us. There were only eleven Cadets remaining of the original company and we were all new and inexperienced. We decided to raise money for Christmas hampers, as usual. The School were entertained by indoor house sports, scavenging parties, and a camp fire. A small fee was paid for entry into the various groups, and eventually a dozen hampers were sent to Whitehawk.

In the Spring term, Miss GIRDLESTONE took us, assisted by Miss SMITH (of Southampton). Recruits were admitted and the company nearly attained its full size. The Guide enrolment took place on May 23rd, so the company appeared in full force on Empire Day. Miss SHERRIFF came again for the Cadet enrolment on July 20th, when a dozen new Cadets were made.

Our energies have been devoted this year to getting Second Class and helping recruits. This may not sound a very elaborate programme, but it should be remembered that the original company was exceptionally young.

We should like to thank Miss GILLET and Miss GIRDLESTONE for all they have done to help the company during the year. K.M.W.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS' UNION—JUNIOR BRANCH.

We have been fortunate enough this year to arrange several meetings for members in all groups.

On October 7th, a senior meeting was held to which members and non-members were invited. Miss THORN gave a speech on Geneva, which was followed by a sketch on opium smuggling. MARY WALMSLEY and CATHERINE HOLDSWORTH gave speeches on the Fourteenth Assembly and Germany To-day. At the end of the meeting all who had attended were asked to sign as supporters or opposers. We are glad to announce that the majority supported the League.

On February 17th, a junior meeting was held in the Elliott Hall. The programme was opened by a series of scenes depicting life in various countries which belonged to the League. They were acted by the members of the six different forms, who were present. A competition then took place, followed by three speeches on Mussolini, Stalin and Hitler, given by SUSAN VAUX, DULCIE HEYCOCK and DOREEN LUSH. The meeting terminated with a sketch by CATHERINE HOLDSWORTH, which aimed at expressing why youth should support the League.

A senior meeting was unfortunately cancelled at the last minute, later this term, owing to scarlet fever quarantine.

On July 21st, a meeting for all members was held in the Elliott Hall. There were competitions, but it was felt that the entries might have been more numerous.

I should like to welcome BETTY HOLLAND as new secretary, and hope she will be successful in the coming year.

This opportunity seems suitable for me to thank Miss THORN and Miss HALSALL for the interest and help they have given to the Branch this year. K.M.W.

"A KISS FOR CINDERELLA."

On December 9th, for the first time in the history of the House, Hebbert produced a play. They chose "A Kiss for Cinderella," and satisfied the School by showing that their dramatic powers were not deficient. Cinderella (GAY BARTON) was a charming character, practical and yet full of the most delightful dreams. DOREEN LUSH (who was substituting for CATHERINE HOLDSWORTH) made the burly policeman so typically British! Mr. Bodie (MARGARET MAILLARD) was the artist complete with a short memory and cigarette ash on his coat.

Cinderella's children, appearing like jack-in-the-boxes from their beds, won our hearts, and we rejoiced as they enjoyed their feast of hot potatoes and milk.

The court scene provided ample opportunities for laughing, the king hanging on to his strap, the children with their paper bags, the prancing ladies and the pompous Lord Chamberlain. It would be possible to recall incidents in this scene for hours, but space is limited. We were glad to leave Cinderella in the very efficient hands of Dr. Bodie (BETTY HOLLAND), who revealed a human side to the unsuspecting nurse (BETTY DEANE) and Danny (BETTY RILEY). The policeman terminated the play in the most appropriate way possible, by presenting Cinderella with a pair of glass shoes.

We would like to congratulate the Mistresses and girls of Hebbert on the excellent way they produced a very charming play.

"THE RISING GENERATION."

On Friday night, January 27th, and twice on Saturday, January 28th, the Mistresses gave performances of "The Rising Generation." The School watched on Saturday afternoon and the evening performances were for the visitors. For a month we had eagerly anticipated the event, but our wildest dreams were far surpassed. For nearly three hours the School laughed. Miss THORN and Miss BOLTON, as Mr. and Mrs. Entwhistle, gave us an excellent representation of a middle-aged couple just returned from an African tour of exploration. We were delighted to see Mr. Entwhistle deal with the problems of a long-lost parent as easily as he customarily settles Pythagoras. Miss FENBY, as their 17-year-old son, Warwick, astounded us by his youthful indifference to the practical difficulties of domestic life, and the amount he ate. Miss LINNELL, as his 15-year-old sister, Winnie, made a dramatic entry in full school uniform, bringing a school-friend, Vane (Miss GIRDLESTONE) back for part of the holidays. Warwick had also invited two distinguished friends, George Breeze, the captain of the second XI, and Walter Morrell, the leader of the school movement for the emancipation of youth. Miss ROBINSON made a handsome cricket captain, and we scarcely recognised Miss HALSALL in the lank youth with horn-rimmed glasses who spent his time delivering speeches against parental oppression. Miss LILLEY, as Selina Morrell, played the part of the priggish little brat with consummate art. Mr. and Mrs. Entwhistle decided to leave the rising generation to its own devices and the care of the butler and cook. The results were disastrous, even the paragon of all fatalistic butlers, Miss THOULESS, with the help of the "difficult" cook and her "asirprins" were unable to cope with the situation. Mr. and Mrs. Entwhistle arrived back just in time to placate the enraged hot-house gardener from next door (Miss SMITH) and Mr. Morrell, who had come in search of his errant son and daughter. We were sorry that Miss CARTER was unable to take her part as Mr. Morrell, but Miss BROWNE was certainly a very stern father. The comedy was brought to a finish by the appearance of Mr. Entwhistle's mother (Miss LAW) complaining of her own undutiful children.

It is impossible to do justice to all the players in "The Rising Generation," but there were scenes which moved the present generation to laughter for a long time afterwards.

"TO HAVE THE HONOUR." By A. A. MILNE.

We must congratulate Miss GALTON and the members of Elliott House on producing a play in a very short space of time. The Battersbys, father and daughter (M. DUKE and L. WATTS) won our hearts with their carefree attitude of "I am a Battersby, take it or leave it." The Prince (V. STRONG) was all that Angela Battersby's guests could wish for, complete with a Neo-Slavonian accent and the Order of the Leopard, first-class. But even the audience must confess to a touch of disappointment on learning that he was really plain Michael Brown. Special mention must be made of Jennifer Bulger (or should it be Brown?) played by M. BUCKE, whose unruffled self-assurance even stood the shock of discovering her prodigal husband gaining his living as a professional prince. Imogen Faithfull (M. EASTHAM) made a successful conspirator, though we feel that her mother (D. KEMPE), the "Queen of Wych Trentham," would not have altogether approved. Ethel (H. SETH) must be mentioned for her splendid efforts to prevent conversation flagging, but we feel that her husband, Robert Holt, (H. GIBSON) must have been a trying person to live with, particularly if he made a habit of talking politics. The candid friend, Dr. Ainslie (M. WILKINSON) delighted us with his republican principles. Some of the audience especially appreciated his pipe, but we were disappointed that he did not converse in medical Latin, as was so kindly suggested to him. Miss GALTON has added another laurel to her brow, and the whole cast is to be congratulated on the excellency of their performance.

GAMES' REPORT.

First XI Criticisms.

Hockey.

- V. COBBETT (Goal). Cool and reliable goal; her footwork improved steadily.
- †B. HOLLAND (Right Back). A steady player; with more understanding of the tactics of back play, she will be very good.
- *M. DUKE, Capt. (Left Back). Very good; she is neat and reliable and plays a sound game.
- ††R. LOASBY (Right-Half). Very good; her play improved.
- †J. BARKER (Centre-Half). Good; a very hard worker.
- M. BUSHELL (Left-Half). Steadily improving; she is inclined at present to muddle her back.
- ††M. WALMSLEY (Right Wing). Very good field play; her circle play showed improvement at the end of the season.
- †K. WALTON, Vice-Capt. (Right Inside). Promising forward; she combines well with her wing and follows up in the circle.
- N. THOMPSON (Centre-Forward). Disappointing; she does not use her speed nor free herself in the field.
- †K. GEE (Left-Inside). She has speed and a good shot, but lacks control and team work.
- †G. BARTON (Left Wing). Very promising; she is fast and gets away quickly; she must pass sooner when she cannot make straight for goal.
- *Colours. †Mention.

House Hockey Matches.

Hebbert and St. Hilary played three matches, all resulting in a draw. The winner should have played Babington in the final.

*First VII Criticisms.Netball.

M. BUSHELL (Goal). With closer marking she will be a very good defence. Her passing is neat.

†J. MIDDLETON (Defence). She marks well and her passing is accurate and varied.

*F. WOOLGAR, Capt. 1st Team (D.C.). Her marking and passing are excellent and she works well in both defence and attack.

M. WALMSLEY (D.C.). She is a quick, neat player with plenty of spring.

†K. GEE (C.). She makes good use of her spring, and works with untiring energy.

*K. WALTON, Capt. (A.C.). Her great speed and neat passing make her a valuable member of the team.

G. BARTON (Attack). Is quick and jumps well, but her shooting is often erratic.

†P. RYAN (S.). A fair shooter, but she finds difficulty in getting free.

CRICKET.First XI Criticisms.

†M. DUKE, (Capt.) A promising all-round player.

††G. BARTON (Vice-Capt.). A good all-round player. She must increase her attack in batting.

†B. RILEY. Good. Bowling improved. She must learn to play forward in batting.

†M. BUSHELL. Good. A promising wicket-keeper. Her batting is forceful, but lacks style at present.

B. HUNT. A promising player ; she needs to concentrate on foot-work in batting.

V. COBBETT. A steady bat, but too much on the defensive. Fielding improved.

M. BRYAN BROWN. A good field. Batting erratic.

R. LOASBY. Fielding good. Batting lacks confidence and style.

P. RYAN. Batting improving ; she must back up when fielding.

M. WALMSLEY. An excellent fielder ; her batting improving.

L. CHAMPION. Promising, but erratic at present.

TENNIS.

1st couple	*V. STRONG.	Her sound knowledge of the game makes her a good all-round player.
	*V. COOPER.	Has the making of a good player, but attaches too little importance to the value of foot-work.
2nd couple	M. BUSHELL.	A steady player, who with freer style would be really good.
	B. HUNT.	Has good style, and with careful practice should go far.
3rd couple	R. LOASBY.	Plays a steady game ; her length is good and placing effective.
	†M. DUKE.	Has good style and with further experience and more attack, will play a really good game.

CONTRIBUTIONS FROM THE SCHOOL.

A ST. MARY'S HALL SCHOOL SONG.

It should be understood that this song was composed in a hurry and sung at the Old Girls' Week-End during an entertainment. Each year was represented by a girl suitably dressed.

Here's to the girls of St. Mary's Hall,
Found on the earth without number ;
Girls of all ages and girls of all sorts,
Who still will the old School remember.

Here's to the maiden of 1-8-3-6
(Please notice her elegant bonnet),
Her knowledge is varied consisting in all
From samplers to writing a sonnet !

Here's to the maiden of 1-8-9-6,
Calisthenics develop the figure ;
Her skirts are so short that her movement is free,
The expanse of her legs is much bigger !

Here's to the maiden of 1-9-0-6,
The size of her waist would surprise you,
Her cap is the fashion—and notice her tie—
And mind that the minx don't make eyes at you !

Here's to the maiden of 1-9-2-0,
Her waist has from nature descended ;
She's considered a tomboy and walks with a swing,
And considers she's female transcended !

Here's to the maiden of 1-9-2-6,
Her skirt by this time is indecent ;
She's cut off her hair and lengthened her legs
And her thoughts are considered " so recent."

Here's to the maiden of 1-9-3-4,
She represents nearly three hundred ;
She's proud of the School which is growing each day
In a manner which cannot be numbered.

Here's to the maiden of 1-9-5-6,
Just shorts by this time are her garment,
We suspect when she's bathing e'en these are despised
And nature's her only requirement !

A NEW OLD GIRL.

SONNET TO THE BABINGTON PIANO

Men say celestial music is the way
 Our souls are lifted to the heavens above.
 I think that it is easier far to move
 Men's souls from sordid haunts to realms of day,
 Than make our old piano tribute pay
 To "Broadwood's, Makers," or to life and love ;
 For when our soul is soaring like a dove
 The most essential note declines to play.

Oh, venerable instrument, thine age
 Most jealously we ever guard within Respectable obscurity. We wage
 Grim war with those who seek thine origin.
 To each his own ! Apollo's are his harps,
 But our's thine unexpected flats and sharps !

PUCK.

THOUGHTS DURING THE INSTALLATION OF CENTRAL HEATING IN THE SCHOOL HOUSE.

We heard about a week ago,
 The news which I'm repeating ;
 That men were coming to the School
 To put in central heating.

And sure enough they came along,
 With clatter, crash and hammer ;
 Which slowly took our thoughts away
 From French and English grammar.

Although we're apt to grumble now,
 We're trying to remember,
 How glad and thankful we shall be—
 Not now—but in December !

ON LEAVING SCHOOL.

" You're leaving, aren't you ? What are you going to do ? " " Well, I don't know. Be a secretary, I suppose." That is what most of us say before leaving school, and our sorrow at leaving a loved place is tinged with a dull sense of fear for the future.

During the course of our schooldays, we always have some goal before us, and our lives run smoothly along fixed lines set down for us by our superiors, to the desired end, which may be anything from a matriculation certificate to a place in the first eleven.

I very much doubt whether we apply the valuable object lesson referred to above, to our future lives. No wonder we fear the future when we not only lack knowledge of how to guide our lives, but also of our very aim in life. A train without a railway track and a driver ignorant of his destination would make but an indifferent journey.

Before we leave school, therefore, it is essential that we should have an aim, or goal, in life which would serve us no matter what profession we embraced. When at last we have found our goal, we can begin to think of the best ways to reach it.

The task of finding an end in life is as difficult as it is exciting. We study the stars, and are filled with despair when we compare our short span of life to eternity, and our negligible sphere of influence in contrast to infinity. We study the story of mankind, and note that the ordinary individual can apparently accomplish nothing. This little earth seems to be full of injustice and oppression.

Yet the very difficulties that we encounter serve to show us that we must search for our goal in the future, and not in the past. The past is full of error, but we can fill the future with our ideals and aspirations, when we have found them.

When we say that we have no purpose in life, we are stating that we either have no regard for truth at all or else are too indifferent to seek it, and we are also stating that our lives are of little use to mankind. No answers come to an unasked question, but those ardent wayfarers who seek incessantly shall find both the end and the means to accomplish it.

THE LONELY SEA BIRD.

Barren, forbidding, thyme-crested
 Rise the cliffs from the shingle below ;
 No sound through the briny sea-fog
 Save the roar of the waves, long and slow.
 No life to be seen, through the gloom of the caves,
 Echoing with the boom of the foam-crested waves.

Yet suddenly in the soft twilight
 A sound pierced its way through the gloom ;
 The long drawn-out scream of a sea-bird
 Startled, as though the white spume
 Of the waves, on the rocks of grey stone
 Had something to show, of a spirit unknown.

THE TWILIGHT FAIRY.

When the golden sun has gone to rest beyond the dusky hills,
And a blackbird sings his evening hymn beside the meadow rills ;
And all the world is resting from the labours of the day—
'Tis then the mystic fairy of the twilight comes my way.

She flutters o'er the hillside beside the tinkling stream,
She sings a whispered melody—you hear it in a dream—
Her wings of blue are gleaming through the shadows of the trees,
And her song flows on for ever, like the droning of the bees.

By all the nodding harebells she wends her dreamless way,
She folds their tiny petals with her wand of gold and grey;
Then, like an imp, elusive, she flies across the land,
And steals a grain of "sleepy" dust, from the sandman's hoard of sand.

You may hear her tinkling laughter, when you're half-asleep in bed,
But only when the shadows fall, and the sun is dark and red ;
For when the night comes quickly down, and shadows have turned grey,

The twilight fairy spreads her wings and quickly flies away.

THE VAGRANT SPIRIT.

Oh, for to wander where'er I pleased !
To sleep under hedges and to drink from the brook !
To wander for ever as free as a rook.
Whatever the weather, be it shine or rain,
I'd wander for ever through byway and lane.

Oh, for to wander with never a care !
Through woodland and marsh, through valley and glen !
O'er mountains and peaks, through forest and fen !
With no one to worry whatever I did ;
I'd wander for ever from everyone hid.

Oh, for I'd wander for ever and aye !
I'd follow a stream or rest in a dell ;
I'd talk to the birds and my story I'd tell ;
I'd hear the song that nature sings,
I'd live in the joy that nature brings.

Oh, for to wander as free as the air !
With birds for companions and beasts as my friends !
I'd wander for ever until my life ends,
And I would be happy for all my days,
Just wand'ring for ever in all unknown ways.

LOVE.

Love is a land where all things lovely grow,
Where skies are blue and gentle breezes blow,
Where grass is green, where brooks run slowly on,
With trees to shade, and banks to sit upon.

Where naught of hate or horror lives for long,
Where all is happiness and one love song,
And all is sweet content and joyful bliss,
This land of love, and life, and happiness.

FLOWERS.

The hollyhocks are tall and grand,
And near the sunflowers take their stand.
In front the smaller flowers grow,
Poppies, forget-me-nots in a row.
The pansies grow around the border,
All arranged and placed in order.

JOURNEY'S END.

We awakened in the morning with old England's pleasant sun,
We awakened very early, as the day had just begun ;
We awakened with the feeling that we were round the bend,
We awakened with a feeling we were at our journey's end.

Two years we'd been away, across the waters blue,
And though the time was very long, it really simply flew.
We have visited the jungle, America and Spain,
And many other countries we'd love to see again.

We've seen great Mussolini, Herr Hitler, and the Pope ;
We've been shipwrecked on an iceberg, not far from Cape Good Hope ;
We've played cricket in Australia, amid the scorching sun,
We've never stopped a' doing since our voyage had begun.

And now we cross the Channel—our good old England's sea,
To see our wives and children, awaiting us in glee ;
And when we get ashore again, our boat we then must mend,
For our voyage now is finished, we are at our journey's end.

THE COUNTRY MAN'S LAMENT.

On Sundays my good wife puts on
Her purple gownd and stockin's,
She braideth up her hair so fine
With pink and silver smockin's.

She moves about so soft, so light
To kape her shoon fra' rubbin',
She don't do nought but set her down
Nor does a scrap o' scrubbin'.

She lays me out ma Sunday coat
And linen shirt and tie ;
I'm not allowed to smoke ma pipe,
Nor go to the " Lion " Inn nigh.

I often wonder what possessed
Sae fine a man as me
To bind mysel' in marriage bonds
Wi' such a nag as she.

IN MEMORIAM.

Miss C. J. B. BIRRELL.

The notice of the death of Miss C. J. B. BIRRELL, affectionately known at the Hall as Miss KATE, appears in this issue. She was the younger sister of the headmistress, Miss BIRRELL (who preceded Miss POTTER), and was Senior English Mistress at St. Mary's Hall from 1889—1897.

After leaving the Hall, she was a lecturer at Glasgow University. She had taken a Cambridge Honours degree in Classics and in 1912 published a Greek play. Her death took place in Glasgow, her native city.

THE VEN. DONALD F. CAMPBELL.

The sorrowful news of the death in a motor accident of our late Governor, the ARCHDEACON OF CARLISLE, father of little JEAN CAMPBELL, who had just left the Junior House, brought grief to all who knew him, and specially to those who remembered his beautiful address one Founder's Day evening. At the Memorial Service in Preston Parish Church, the BISHOP OF LEWES said : " And on this eve of the Angels' Day, when we remember that God has constituted the services of angels and men in a wonderful Order, we may take much consolation in the thought that human ministry does not end with the close of earthly opportunity. That, too, goes on."

Our very best sympathy is offered to Mrs. CAMPBELL, and to JEAN and her four brothers.

ALICE, COUNTESS DOWAGER OF CHICHESTER.

Yet another dear and familiar figure has vanished from this world—the dear LADY CHICHESTER, who sat for years at the Council table and took the keenest loving interest in all our affairs. She first suggested, and always eagerly supported, the issue of debentures, as a brave indication of our will to live and grow, and she rejoiced greatly when her hope was justified. We love to think that St. Mary's Hall had been dear to her heart for perhaps a quarter of a century.

MISS L. AGNES GRIFFITHS (at Hall, 1870-1874).

The diocese of Bangor has been deprived of the services of a zealous and efficient churchwoman by the death of Miss GRIFFITHS, of Machynlleth, at the age of 77. She was the eldest daughter of the late CANON GRIFFITHS, Rector of Machynlleth, and for nearly half a century she took a leading part in Church work in the diocese. She was a member of the Governing Body of the Church in Wales, and her activities in connexion with the Mother's Union and the Girls' Friendly Society, of which she was Diocesan President, will not easily be forgotten. She was in great demand as a speaker up and down the country, and had taken part in parochial missions in London and elsewhere. At Machynlleth no form of Church activity was complete without her co-operation. Her generosity was unstinted, and her love for the Church and its Sacraments profound and unswerving.

MR. A. F. GRIFFITH.

By the sudden death on December 30th, 1933, of Mr. ARTHUR GRIFFITH, the Trustees and the Governors, and the whole School, lost a very true friend. A scholar, a naturalist, a most able solicitor, a lover of the Sussex Downs and of gardens, Mr. GRIFFITH was all these, and he was our friend. He believed in the School and her future, in the darkest days of 1917-1919, when we were crippled by debt ; and he gave his wise advice and his great experience to support the plan of enlarging the School by adding the great Houses that have made its growth possible. He lived just to see the last

House—Babington—in being, but not to see “ the School of 300,” to which he looked forward. For friendship, loyal support, and help like his—he was one who gave his alms in secret—we can only give deep thanks and try to be worthy of his trust. New science rooms, and a Memorial Garden have been suggested as thank-offerings in his name. Other suggestions, and help, will be welcomed by the Head Mistress.

MISS F. M. POTTER.

By the death last year of Miss FRANCES M. POTTER, there passed away a former member of the staff who always held St. Mary's Hall in affectionate remembrance. Miss POTTER was for 24 years from 1877-1901, a Music Mistress, and helped in the general duties connected with the School. Always dependable, conscientious and thorough in her work, together with a kindly unobtrusive personality, she was a valued member of the staff and a good influence throughout the many years passed in the School she loved.

MRS. WYATT (née E. I. CALDWELL).

With the passing of Mrs. WYATT on February 7th, 1933, the Hall has lost one of its oldest old girls. She entered the School in 1857, and left in 1861. For 33 years she was in India with her husband, and led a very strenuous life with him in the Mission Field at Tinnevely and Trichinopoly. They retired from Mission work in 1896, and in 1899 Mr. WYATT was appointed to be Rector of Brandon, Suffolk. There Mrs. WYATT did much useful work among the boys, girls, and mothers of the parish. On their retirement in 1917, they went to live in Cambridge, where Mrs. WYATT took an active part in connection with the University's Mission to Delhi.
